Shared Responsibilities:

Either party may terminate or extend this agreement by giving two weeks' notice in writing, prior to course commencement.

Confidentiality:

The parties to this agreement will take all reasonable steps to ensure the confidentiality of all materials.

Fees:

Fees for the course are noted above

Disputes resolution:

If a dispute arises in relation to this Agreement, both parties agree to communicate with each other in good faith, using their best endeavours to resolve the dispute.

If the dispute is not settled between the two parties within five (5) working days, the liaison person will refer the dispute to the Chief Executive of their respective institutions who will use their best endeavours to resolve the dispute.

If the dispute is not resolved by the Chief Executive of each institution within ten (10) working days, and the parties agree, the dispute may be referred to mediation. The parties agree to commit to resolving the dispute in good faith at mediation. In the event the mediation does not resolve the dispute, the parties agree that the mediator shall make a decision on the dispute and that decision shall be binding on both parties.

The costs of dispute resolution, including mediation if required, will be borne by each party equally.

Both parties will, in so far as practicable, continue to comply with their obligations under this Agreement until the dispute is resolved.
